

Total Event Resources Named Finalist in 2007 Event Solutions Spotlight Awards

SCHAUMBURG, IL – June 13, 2007 - Total Event Resources represented by Kathy Miller today announced that it has been named as one of six finalists for the prestigious 2007 Event Solutions Spotlight Award as Event Company of the Year. The recipient of the Spotlight Award will be announced at the Event Solutions Spotlight Awards Event in Miami Beach on August 23 in the Olympia Theater at the Gusman Center for the Performing Arts.

Event Solutions magazine has presented the Spotlight Awards to top event industry professionals for the past 10 years. The 22 award categories honor people and companies in a wide variety of disciplines necessary to produce excellent events.

Total Event Resources specializes in the field of corporate meetings, events, entertainment and theatrical productions for Fortune 1000 companies and major trade associations throughout the world. Known for their creativity, attention to detail, vast resources and commitment to success, they've built the business by staying at the forefront of innovation within the meetings and events industry.

An event industry colleague who felt that Total Event Resources' body of work deserved this honor, nominated Total Event Resources for the award. Then Total Event Resources created an entry profile describing its work to present in the on line voting site. This entry appears on the voting site at www.event-solutions.com from June 1, 2007 until July 23, 2007. To view the entry profiles and vote, visit www.event-solutions.com and click on the "vote" button.

The 2007 Event Solutions Spotlight Awards Event, produced by the HAND Company of California, will be held on August 23, 2007 in Miami, Florida at the Olympia Theater in the Gusman Center for the Performing Arts. This same evening, the Event Solutions Event Industry Hall of Fame presentations will be made to industry luminaries whose work has impacted the history of event production. Following the state-of-the-art awards presentations, guests will walk the red carpet to a dinner and after-party celebration at the Alfred I. Dupont building with décor by Designs by Sean, catering by Touch Catering both of Florida. The Spotlight Awards Event is a black tie affair with expected attendance of 400 to 500 of the industry's top professionals.

2

The Spotlight Awards Event is the finale to the 2007 Event Solutions Idea Factory - Education, Events and Expo, which will be held at the Miami Beach Convention Center, August 20 – 23. Event Solutions magazine boasts a circulation of over 26,000 and is one of the products of Event Publishing, LLC. which also produces the Idea Factory.